

Geocoding

If your church membership or prospect list is on computer, we are able to provide a map of your community that indicates where these individuals live. This service may be helpful if your church is planning to relocate or enhance its outreach ministries.

About Demographic Services

Before the 1990 U.S. census, researchers divided the United States into micro grids (which represent small squares of land as seen in the map below).

A database was created that allowed the census data to be saved into their respective micro grids. Since then all of the U.S. census information has been placed in this database. The micro grids allow us to establish a point on the map (i.e., the location of your church) and to select only the data you wish to include in the study.

What information does Demographic Services provide?

- Population trends from 1990-2007
- Age breakdown
- Household income and trends
- Race comparisons and trends
- Household sizes
- Vehicles per household
- Much, much more

This information can be provided for a:

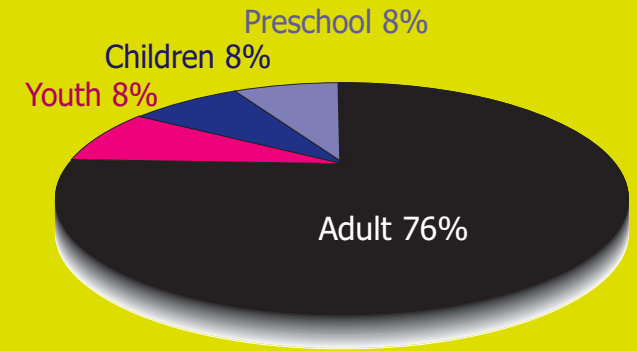

- Specified mile radius around your church
- Boundary of streets that you designate
- Specified drive time to your church
- City, a county or a zip code

By monitoring new housing starts, new utility services, ended utility services, new births, etc., researchers are able to update the data and provide us with current information.

Lifestyle Study

In addition to demographic information, we can also identify the basic lifestyle of those living around your church. This will help your church leaders as they plan outreach strategies for your church.
