Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for your partnership in ministry through the Cooperative Program. Our work in Mississippi over the last year has had so many high points, and that is because of your faithfulness and our Lord's goodness. We are now into our third year of focus on our IMPACT initiatives and our focus this year has been calling out the called.

In 1 Peter 4.10, Peter wrote, "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace." Peter reminded us in these words that every believer is gifted by the Holy Spirit to serve the Lord in some unique way. He challenged us therefore to be faithful as His servants to fulfill His call upon our lives.

We often think of ministerial call as applicable to those who have been called to vocational ministry and that is a true and distinct call that God issues. At the same time, He is calling every disciple to service in His church in some capacity either as a vocational servant or volunteer minister. The truth is that we're experiencing a deficit of servants to pastor, teach, train, serve, and go. I certainly don't think it is because God isn't calling but because we simply aren't listening and responding.

Our focus at the MBCB is to celebrate God's faithfulness to call His servants for ministry and to challenge and support our churches in the effort to highlight His work as He does. In the pages of this year's ministries handbook, you'll find information about the ministries we offer to assist you in this focus. You'll also find general information about the services we offer and the leaders within our ministry who can help you as needed.

I hope you'll look through this handbook to familiarize yourself with it and then hang on to it as a resource throughout the year. If nothing else, remember to pray for the cooperative work of Mississippi Baptists when you see it on your desk or in your drawer. Be assured of my appreciation for you and my desire for us to stand with you in the effort to glorify our Lord and impact our world through the Gospel.

Your fellow servant,
