FEATURED SPEAKERS

Dr. Chip Stevens has served as Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church, Jackson, Mississippi, since 2019. He holds a bachelor's degree from Mississippi College and a master's degree from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. In addition, he was awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree from Mississippi College where he currently serves on the Board of Trustees. He is married to Sandra, and they have three children: Reid (Natalie) Stevens, Emory (John Clyde) Ready, and Graham Stevens.

Dr. Lloyd Sweatt was born in Montgomery, Alabama. He graduated from Callaway High School in Jackson, Mississippi, and earned his undergraduate degree from Mississippi State University. He earned the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Dr. Sweatt pastored New Henleyfield SB Church in Carriere, Mississippi, while a student and then moved to Duck Hill BC, Duck Hill, Mississippi, where he served as full time pastor. In 1996, he accepted the call to Meadowood Baptist Church, Amory, Mississippi, where he has served for the past 27 years. He has served Mississippi Baptists in numerous capacities. Dr. Sweatt met his wife, Rita Wood Sweatt, while in high school, and married in 1980. Lloyd and Rita have three daughters, Mary Megan Parker (Alston); Molly Steed (Jake) and Shelby Sweatt. They have a grandson, Jaylen, and five granddaughters, Ella, Scout, Kashe, Kenzy, and Wren.

Rev. Andrew Chesteen has served as the Senior Pastor at First Baptist Church New Albany since June 2019. He earned a degree in Biblical Studies from Blue Mountain College in 2015 before receiving Master of Divinity and Master of Theology degrees from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He is preparing to complete the Doctor of Philosophy degree at NOBTS this fall. Before accepting the call to FBC New Albany, he served for four years as the pastor at Tiplersville Baptist Church. Andrew, originally from Winona, is married to Audra, and they have two beautiful children, Selah Joy (5) and Drew (3). Andrew enjoys spending time with his family and pastoring God's people.

Dr. Vance Pitman is president of Send Network, the largest church planting network in North America, and founding pastor of Hope Church Las Vegas. As a twenty-plus year veteran church planter who commissioned more than 75 churches in the Western United States during his tenure at Hope Church, Vance not only grew Hope Church into the vibrant multi-ethnic fellowship it is today, but also travels the country seeking to inspire people to join in God's eternal, redemptive mission of making disciples, by multiplying the Church all over North America, that the nations may come to know Him. Vance resides in Henderson, Nevada, with his wife Kristie, and has four children and four grandchildren. He is the author of UNBURDENED: Stop Living for Jesus So Jesus Can Live Through You and The Stressless Life: Experiencing the Unshakable Presence of God's Indescribable Peace.
