Dear Church Leader,

I suspect we can all agree that the spiritual needs of the world are becoming more obvious by the day. International conflicts continue to spark and escalate globally. At the same time, domestic issues of crime, corruption, poverty, and family breakdown continue to plague the culture, and the divide between demographic groups only seems to be widening. All these characteristics provide inarguable evidence of the reality of spiritual lostness.

While many answers are given across the spectrum of culture, the only ultimate and lasting answer is spiritual reconciliation with our Creator. Of course, the means and mechanisms of this reconciliation are the heart of the Gospel. In short, the church has the answer that the entire world needs to hear, and it is our responsibility to share this answer for the world to know.

Our hope at the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board is to support the work of this mission among the churches in our family. We do so through facilitating partnerships with Southern Baptist entities, coordinating partnerships with institutions and agencies within Mississippi, and resourcing churches to do the work God has given them to do.

We stand ready to assist you in whatever way we can. You'll find opportunities on these pages to lock arms with other local churches to do this work more efficiently and effectively. You'll also find an array of events designed to provide training and fellowship for all sorts of ministry leaders. If you see something that prompts a question, don't hesitate to reach out so we can offer our best answers.

Be sure of my genuine appreciation for you and the work you are doing in His church. I'm praying this will be your best year yet, and that our Lord will be glorified through our collective work.

Your fellow servant,
